Dr. Sirs,-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of P.C. in ans. to mine asking for bids for 2 rare Medals held by me for disposal to highest bidders. In reply, would say that I am simply doing as I have been frequently requested to do, asking from the prominent Coin Collectors & Dealers bids for my 2 rarities, &, if they want them, I trust they will govern themselves accordingly, as I do in such cases, to wit, make their best Cash offers for same & a 2nd. bid for each of $\frac{1}{2}$ Cash & $\frac{1}{2}$ Ex., specific.

Believe me, faithfully yours, W. E. H. Cole

Dear Sirs,-

I beg to enclose you herewith a few bids for the Hopper Sale, which I trust will be in time, and that some of them may be sufficiently high to "Catch", altho', as you will see, I have made them uniformly very low, intending, if I secure anything, that it should be an undoubted bargain. I have made up my mind to keep Medals for my own Collection, having lately purchased others, and becoming fully alive to their exceeding beauty and rarity. Have still aduplcat

-e N.W. Canada, Medal, ribbon, &c., and also a "Saskatchewan". Would trade the first, but want Cash for second. Would like an offer. Have you still the Weir & Larminie, &c., if so, what sum, in addition to N.W. Med would you accept for same? I lately secured the Crimean Medal, with Clasps, Sebastopol, Inkerman, & Alma, also the Turkish Crimea, the Indian with Lucknow clasp, & the good Conduct & long Service Medal, all given to the one Soldier, very fine, but lacking the ribbons. Would esteem it a favour, if, when forwarding such lots, if any, that I secure, you wd. if possible, for any reasonable sum, purchase the proper ribbons to be used with same, as it greatly enhances their appearance at least, somuch so that, if the exact c unterpart may not be obtained then as nearly as possible the thing. Hoping I may secure a few Lots, and to have a bid in Cash for my "Sas.", medal, fine, believe me, Faithfully Yours, W. KELSEY HALL.

The earth's work prices our bidding set at 100.
It is high for we are used

Dear Sirs,-

I beg to enclose you herewith 45 cents in unused U. S. stamps for priced Cat. of Hooper Sale. As to Medals for which I wish to secure ribbons, would say that I have the Crimean Medal with three clasps, viz, Sebastopol, Alma, Inkermann; the Turkish Crimea; the Indian, with Lucknow clasp, and the Good conduct & Long service, all with the name of the one man on rim. Are they any more valuable on that account? Have you anything now in the line of the fairly rare Candn. Coins, &c. for Sale cheap, and, what do you offer in ex. for my duplicate N.W. Medal, with ribbon and name on rim, &c., very good cond.?

Believe me,

Faithfully Yours,
